Land Acknowledgement

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We begin by acknowledging the land and our responsibility to care for and respect all that Creation gives to provide us with life. This land upon which we live, work and sustain ourselves is the ancestral and treaty lands of the Michizaagiiig Anishinaabek also known today as the Mississaugas of the Credit. We also recognize that this land is rich in pre-contact history and relations, which include the Anishinaabek and Onkwehono and since European contact has and continues to become home for Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples. As a responsible community we believe all people are sacred and possess inherent and immeasurable worth and dignity.

Colonialism of Peoples of their ancestral lands and continue their basic human rights. We are committed to the spirit of reconciliation, making reparations and fulfilling our treaty obligations, duties and responsibilities. This is the naaganinaa (Dish with One Spoon) wampum. This treaty governs and affirms that we actively maintain mutually beneficial relationships and collectively respect and care for the land, water, animals and each other in order to guarantee a good life for our
